A Joint leadership meeting of the Eritrean Democratic Party (EDP) and the Eritrean People's Party (EPP) on Saturday, 11 April 2009, started important unity deliberations in Frankfurt, Germany. Headed by co-chairmen of the Joint Coordination Body, Mr. Mesfin Hagos and Mr. Woldeyesus Ammar, the meeting was attended by 16 leadership members from both sides that started the first session with review of past achievements of the unity process and evaluation of its current status which shall be the basis of action in the immediate future.

The meeting adopted an annotated agenda which included the following broad topics: 1) Reports from the three organs of the Joint Coordination Body; 2) interim joint action plans before merger; 3) procedures and processes in preparing the unification congress, and 4) relations with members of the opposition camp and with neighbouring fraternal countries.

The EDP/EPP leadership meeting, which was convened as planned to review mid-term achievements of the transition programme, was conducted with spirited cordiality and expected full understanding. The meeting is planned to finalize its session on Sunday, 12 April 2009, with the issuance of a final statement on the regular meeting.
