On January 16, the Head of Organizational Affairs of the Eritrean People's Democratic Party (EPDP), Mr. Tesfamichael Yohannes, held a meeting with members of his party in Rochester, New York to discuss the outcome of the merger conference and the challenges awaiting the new party.

In his presentation, Mr. Tesfamichael discussed a wide range of issues, with a particular focus on the new party's programs and objectives, as well as the drawn up plans for achieving them. He also spoke of the immediate and long term challenges that lie ahead in our pursuit for a united and well-organized political party.

After Mr. Tesfamichael concluded his presentation, party members discussed and exchanged views on a number of issues in a question and answer format with Mr. Tesfamichael, notably on EPDP's political resolutions, Eritrean opposition camp, Eritrean civic society organizations, and EPDP's organizational development.

The meeting ended with party members expressing strong support for the newly established political party and pledging themselves to step up efforts to achieve the party's objectives and programs.
