

Members of EPDP Leadership holds Meeting in Stuttgart

Department of Information and Culture

Eritrean People's Democratic Party

January 17, 2010

Members of Eritrean People's Democratic Party (EPDP) Transitional leadership, Ms. Ertra Alazar, head of EPDP Women's League and member of EPDP Executive body; and Mr. Brhane Gerezgiher, member of EPDP Central Council held members' meeting on 16 January 2010 in Stuttgart, Germany. Hosted by members of EPDP in Stuttgart, the meeting was opened by Mr. Woldeab Zerai who welcomed the participants and explained the goal of the meeting.

The meeting, which took place three weeks after the formation of the Eritrean People's Democratic Party, was the first post merger meeting that brought together members of the new party.

Focusing on the newly adopted political resolutions and constitution of EPDP, Ms. Ertra discussed at length, emphasizing on the importance of the documents and the role of members in implementing them. Sitting alongside Ms. Ertra, Mr. Brhane stressed on the need of gathering our resources in a concerted manner and moving forward to advance the cause of the struggle. He further urged members to live up to the expectations and hopes of our people.

The meeting concluded with a question and answer period on the topics discussed by the two leaders.
