The Eritrean People's Party Congress on 27 July 2008 continued deliberations on the draft political programme by finalizing discussions under chapter four on the objectives, structure and functions of national army. Also discussed and revised were chapters 5 to 7 on national economy, social services and diplomatic relations.

At the end of the day's sessions, the congress unanimously adopted the political programmes and started reading the introductory part of the draft party constitution which will be thoroughly discussed on 28 July 2008.
