

35 Eritrean Refugees Entered Northern Ethiopia

Department of Information and Culture

Eritrean People's Party

July 26, 2009

35 Eritrean refugees entered Northern Ethiopia between July 15 and July 22, 2009. The new arrivals, 22 civilians and 13 soldiers, entered Northern Ethiopia after they escaped through the border town of Rama.

The soldiers escaped from different Divisions in the Eritrean Army, reportedly from the 16th, 42nd, and 22nd divisions. The civilian group comprises students and workers, including a mother with children.