

113 Eritrean Refugees Entered Northern Ethiopia

Department of Information and Culture

Eritrean People's Party

July 16, 2009

Over the past weekend, July 8-12 2009, 113 Eritrean refugees have entered Northern Ethiopia. The new arrivals, 45 of them soldiers and 68 students have crossed into Ethiopia through the border towns of Zalambesa, Rama, and Gerhu Sirnai.

The student group comprises 16 women and 52 men. In the past two weeks, 237 Eritrean refugees have entered Northern Ethiopia, sources of Eritrean People's Party reported.