Nine Students, including three members of the 16th Eritrean Army Division fled the country and are now seeking refuge in Northern Ethiopia. One of the students who chose not to disclose his name also reported that two of his colleagues were shot and wounded by Eritrean forces on the border area while trying to cross into the Ethiopian side of the border.

Nobody knows whether they are still alive or dead, the student added. The names of the two wounded students are Habtom Tewolde from Mendefera and Anwar Mohammed from Adi Quala.
